Common Questions & Answers for American Republic to 1877 Unit 4

Q1: What were the main reasons for the Constitutional Convention of 1787?

The Constitutional Convention was convened to address the weaknesses of the Articles of Confederation, which lacked the power to regulate commerce, levy taxes, or enforce laws effectively. Delegates aimed to create a stronger federal government that could unify the states, regulate trade, and provide national stability. Key issues included representation (resolved by the Great Compromise), slavery (addressed through the Three-Fifths Compromise), and the separation of powers.

Q2: How did the Federalists and Democratic-Republicans differ in their visions for America?

Federalists favored a strong central government, a national bank, and close ties with Britain, believing stability and economic growth depended on federal authority. Democratic-Republicans prioritized states' rights, agricultural interests, and a limited federal government, often aligning with France in foreign policy. These differences reflected contrasting visions of democracy and economic development.

Q3: What was the significance of the Louisiana Purchase?

The Louisiana Purchase in 1803 was a pivotal moment, doubling the size of the United States and opening vast territories for settlement and economic expansion. the Civil War.

The Civil War resulted in the preservation of the Union and the abolition of slavery through the 13th Amendment.
